

Short biography

ENGLISH · Updated August 2026

Founded in 2012, Quartetto Guadagnini received the Piero Farulli Prize at the Franco Abbiati Awards from Italian music critics two years after its debut. The quartet has appeared at leading Italian venues and series including the Società del Quartetto di Milano, Teatro La Fenice, Bologna Festival, MiTo SettembreMusica, IUC and Ravenna Festival, and has performed across Europe, Asia, South America and the United Arab Emirates. Its artistic partners include Beatrice Rana, Louis Lortie, Avi Avital and Enrico Bronzi. The ensemble's discography includes recordings for Tactus, Brilliant Classics and Amadeus. Artist in Residence at Lucca Classica and Roma Sinfonietta, Quartetto Guadagnini is an official endorser of Jargar Strings.

artistic.office@quartettoquagnini.com